1. LORD, our Lord, in all the earth how ex - cel - lent Your name!
 2. When I view the skies a - bove which Your own fin - gers made,
 3. Next to God You have made man, with light and hon - or crowned.

You a - bove the heav'n's have set the splen - dor of Your fame.
 when I see the moon and stars which You in or - der laid,
 You placed him a - bove Your works; be - neath him all is found:

From the mouths of in - fants young You the power of praise com - pose what is man so frail and weak that You should re - mem - ber him?
 ox - en, sheep, and all wild beasts, birds, and fish the o - ceans claim.

in the face of en - e - mies to stop a - veng - ing foes.
 What can be the son of man that You should care for him?
 LORD, our Lord, in all the earth how ex - cel - lent Your name!
